

TAB Auxiliary Applications Accepted Year- Round

Teens Grades 7 - 12

Our amazing teen service group creates, plans, and implements library events for children and other teens. TAB Auxiliary is open to Mason or Deerfield Township young adults in grades 7 - 12 with Mason Public Library cards.

- NO meetings
- No minimum service requirements
- Get text or email announcements via Remind.
- Commit only to the volunteer shifts that work for you via SignUpGenius.
- Early notification for additional opportunities (tutoring, summer volunteering, programs, Teen Advisory Board)

Find additional Teen Volunteer information on our website:
<http://www.masonpl.org/teen-volunteer-opportunities/>

If interested, please fill out the TAB Auxiliary application and turn it in at the front desk of the Mason Public Library.

Communication is via Remind. Remind is a free communication tool that instantly connects teachers, students, and parents via email, text, and/or an app. All correspondence and reminders are through Remind. Teens under 13 must also give a Parent Remind cell number. Teens and parents can add additional cell and emails to their accounts at Remind.com. Use teen email if teen does not have a cell phone.

Required: Teen Cell number for Remind student group: _____

Optional: Parent 1 Cell number Remind parent group: _____ Name: _____

Optional: Parent 2 Cell number for Remind parent group: _____ Name: _____

Scheduling: Teens need to create a SignUpGenius.com account for themselves. SignUpGenius is a free scheduling tool that we use to manage volunteer assignments. Teen name, not a parent's, must show on SignUp to ensure the check in sheets print correctly. Shift reminders are emailed to this address. 7th & 8th graders should not use their school email because shift reminders will be blocked by the school. All initial scheduling links are sent via Remind during non school hours. Access to shifts is first come, first served and is not guaranteed. Shifts fill VERY quickly!

Required: Teen SignUp Genius username: _____ (email)

Optional: Parent SignUp Genius username: _____ (email)
